

How you can make a difference

Make a promise to volunteer at least 50 hours of community service each year at your school, church or in your community.

West Point Army Community Service
Army Volunteer Corps
Phone: 845-938-3655/4621
E-mail: christina.overstreet@usma.edu

Visit us online at www.westpointmwr.com
Select "Army Volunteer Corps" under the "Army Community Service" tab

West Point Youth Volunteer Program

- Why should you volunteer?
- How can volunteering help you?
- Where can you volunteer?
- How can you make a difference?

▶ Why you should volunteer

- ⊕ Helping those around you
- ⊕ Learn about activities or organizations that interest you
- ⊕ Enhance leadership skills
- ⊕ Explore different careers

▶ How volunteering can help you

- ⊕ College Admissions Offices consider extracurricular activities
- ⊕ National Honor Society and National Junior Honor Society requirements (15 hours per year)
- ⊕ Community service requirements for some scholarships and grants

Organizations offering volunteer opportunities for youth

- Army Community Service
 - ⊕ Army Family Action Plan
 - ⊕ Waiting Family Support Group
- CYSS
 - ⊕ Summer camp counselors
 - ⊕ SKIES Programs
 - ⊕ Month of the Military Child
- FMWR Special Events
 - ⊕ Polar Fest
 - ⊕ 5Ks, Annual 5K/10K
 - ⊕ Haunted Hayride
 - ⊕ Oktoberfest
- Vacation Bible School
- R-Day Rehearsal/ R-Day
- Vet Clinic
- American Red Cross
- Annual Disaster Response Exercise
- Food Bank of the Hudson Valley
- ...and many more!

▶ What's Expected

- Arrive on time
- Follow program's and organization's rules and requirements
- Protect confidential information
- Exercise good judgment
- Complete volunteer agreement and have parent complete parental permission form
- Log volunteer hours

The perfect volunteer opportunity is waiting for you!
For more information, contact the West Point Volunteer Coordinator at 938-3655 or christina.overstreet@usma.edu